

Thank you for wasting time with me.....

I know counting the stars is useless,
but doing it along with you, is worthless.
Clicking more snaps is just waste of memory,
but capturing us is the only memory I want to add.
Random talks are pointless,
still, I can make more points only to talk with you.
Skipping sleep is purposeless,
when it is for you, is the only purpose I can have.
Teasing with nicknames is madness,
but it is more fun when we do it together.
Fighting over silly things is meaningless,
but I can do it all day when it is you.

I know that I am suffocating person, but still I don't want to lose you, I still don't want to hurt you, I still don't want to make you feel down because of me
and I still.... Love you like I always do bro....
